OVER-THE-TOP

TO SOMEWHERE ON THE RHINE

BY

HARRY HIGGINS

URED BY

McGRAIL AND DEIGENAN

— HIGGINS —
·THE PUBLISHER·

OVER THE TOP TO SOMEWHERE ON THE RHINE

By HARRY HIGGINS

Con spirito
INTRO.
f
They sent the harps from Er - in And the warps from It - a - ly And The kilt - ies came from Scot - land, And the john - nies left the strand, And
mf
Rus - sia joined her beard - ed band With French from gay Pa - ree But eve - ry loy - al moth - er's son, All lent a help - ing hand, But rall.
when the Yanks hit No - Man - Land The stars and stripes on high, Sure when the Yanks come all the way With mon - ey shells and men, Their rall.
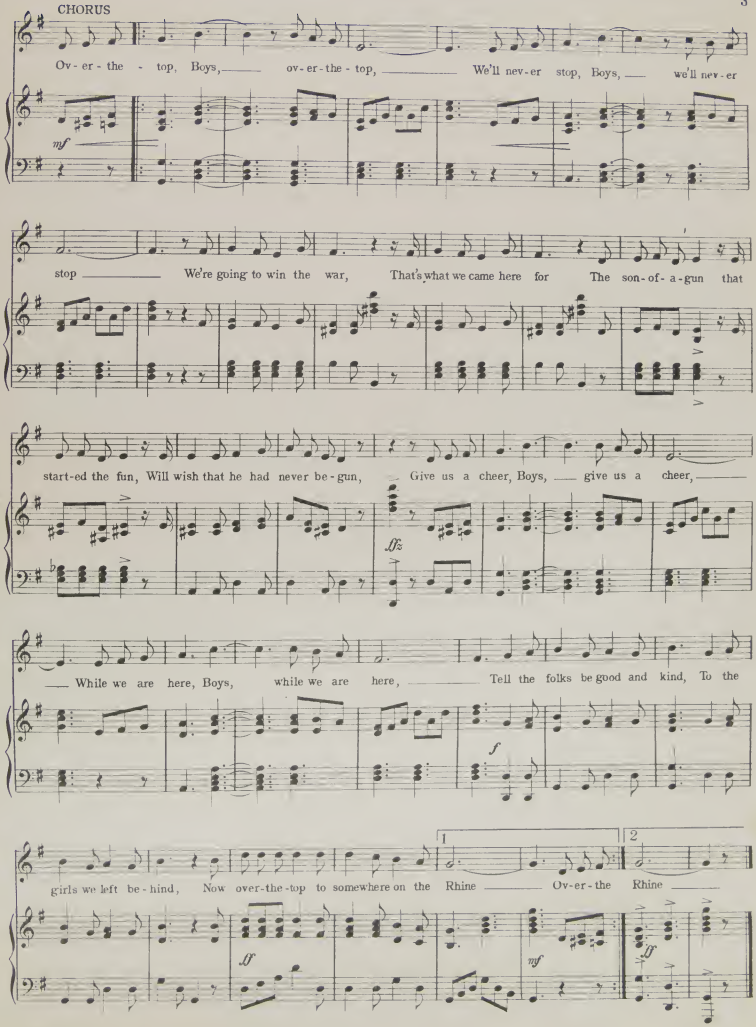
a tempo
eve - ry hat went in the air And eve - ry mouth did cry.
glad war cry just filled the air As they sang once a - gain.
a tempo

Copyright, 1918, by Harry Higgins



CHORUS
Ov - er - the - top, Boys, ov - er - the - top, We'll nev - er stop, Boys, we'll nev - er
mf
stop We're going to win the war, That's what we came here for The son - of - a - gun that start - ed the fun, Will wish that he had never be - gun, Give us a cheer, Boys, give us a cheer,
ff
While we are here, Boys, while we are here, Tell the folks be good and kind, To the
f girls we left be - hind, Now over - the - top to somewhere on the Rhine Ov - er - the Rhine
1
2
ff
mf
ff